

NORTHERN VIEW PRINCE RUPERT

Haida Gwaii thanks the Vancouver Canucks

Vancouver Canucks vice-president of hockey operations and assistant general manager Laurence Gilman, third from left, accepts a carving on behalf of Haida Gwaii in appreciation of the team's visit to the islands in September.

— Image Credit: Jeff Vinnick

f Like

0

Pint

g+1

0

Tweet

0

SHARE

by Contributed - The Northern View

posted Dec 18, 2013 at 7:00 AM

Vancouver Canucks vice-president of hockey operations and assistant general manager Laurence Gilman, third from left, accepts a carving on behalf of Haida Gwaii in appreciation of the team's visit to the islands in September.

Presenting the piece were, from left, Haida Nation president Peter Lantin, artist Cori Savard, Masset mayor Andrew Merilees and West Coast Fishing Club owner Rick Grange.